About This Game

Welcome to Tropical Island.

"But onii-chan, you're just some part-time bum, aren't you? On top of that, your age equals the years you've never had a girlfriend, right?"

The player (that's you!) is a part-timer who lives an uneventful, boring life.

One day, you win the prize draw at the shopping district. The prize: a trip to an island in the south -- you decide to take a 30-day vacation.

"I... want to make this a nice vacation...! I want to change myself in this trip!"

You decide to grow out of your dull, boring life and get a girlfriend.

"To get a girlfriend, you have to first get close with a girl! If you don't create a bond with one, then nothing will ever happen!"

On your vacation, you meet all sorts of girls, each of whom has something troubling them. You can talk with them, share a drink with them, and go on a date with them.

"Let's make this a nice vacation."

In this vacation, will you finally come out of your shell, and manage to make a girlfriend?

◆Game Part

The Liquor Game is a color-matching game! Memorization is key!
Clearing the blocks up top will make the blocks in the bottom float up!
Play your cards right and they'll strip...?!

◆Daily Part

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen;
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over ants,

God save the Queen.. A fun and fast paced game in which you are a noir character fighting through enemies. The graphics are charming and the sounds are awesome in that retro style. This is a fun casual shooter that makes you think how you are going to attack enemies. Moving chairs and tables to make shields is very fun and adds an extra element to the game.

<https://youtu.be/MRYhxWekhAU>. pretty fun.. this is by far the worst pankiller ever made. it is buggy and glitchy like hell. The guy that made it just didn't have enough experience making levels interesting and fluent.. Lot to like about this game. Heavily influenced by Chinatown and the works of Hammett and Chandler. A few transitions in the story aren't quite clearly explained by the narration but your choices carry weight. I enjoyed it a lot and I'll be replaying it.. I really like this game keeps getting more complex.in a good way.I it's the best tycoon of any game.right now i'm looking for stuff to do outside the restaurant.like live in this city or something. this game has a lot to do.But how can it get any better then now I do not know.. This game is nonsensical. holds your hand and still doesn't make sense. Just an overall pretty annoying experience meant for mobile and it shows through strongly like cracks in a finish.. I don't often go out of my way to review games but this was a gem. Engaging story. great voice acting and beautiful visuals. The controls were a little wonky in places with turning but that was minor compared to the positives. I think the only real negative was that the game took less than 5 hours to finish. I really wanted more and would definitely recommend this game to any fan of the genre.. ruff and not full english

Shoot Shoot Harpoon Shoot Shoot Harpoon

Fun game so far after a hour of play. You are ranking yourself vs AI(hopefully other players in the future) in a 6 rounder to see who is the best hunter. Death is perma, so all your hardcore gamer, get your Harpoon on. In the 6 rounds, you get to pick which boss to hunt, as each boss has different reward and score. Item and gold you found on each stage carry over to next. ASSUME that you survive the round that is.

Really wish there is multiplayer, as of now. You are stuck with try to besting yourself vs AI score.

I am not sure if this support controllers, there was an option to input and change the key binding with your controller but when you get into game the buttons are all messed up.. The game wont even start. I had to click on playing and get a few seconds of 'running' time to get the 5 minutes 'play time' required to write this review.. Pretty fun with friends, even if you end up killing yourself!. I don't typically review games but after playing the first few acts of this game I just had to!

The plot: The plot is cliché in my opinion but still a good plot. The character finds out that he's supposed to die and the grim reaper gives him the chance to fulfill his dream which is to die in his sleep.

Art Style: The art style is just so vivid and mesmerizing. Very eye-catching and retro color theme. The characters are well designed and just so adorable. The villains are very unique as well.

Gameplay: This game is your typically side-scroller, platformer game with the added bonus of random twists and turns where you least expect it. My favorite aspect of this game is that I'm always on my toes when playing through each act.

Soundtrack: The soundtrack is just breathtaking! I immediately purchased the soundtrack after hearing a few clippets.

I am the type of person to rage quit quite often during games. However, this game was different. I was immersed in the game by the artwork, story, and soundtrack. The cut-scenes are just beautiful and so heart-warming that whenever I'm at the verge of quitting, I just can't stop.

This game overall is a 10/10. IMO it's worth more than $12.99, I'd definitely would recommend this game to everyone of all ages!. This is a good port of the flash game I remember playing many years ago as a kid. There are added modes, score and stat tracking, and plenty of challenges to give hours of replayability.

If you like Zuma you will enjoy this game and I recommend the purchase.. an awesome survival game with a unique theme utilised to its full potential in VR. There's enough here to keep you busy for a while, however around the 10 hour mark I'd maxed out my research points and fully upgraded my shelter. I'm really looking forward to the next update for the addition of modular base building but as it stands right now i'd give it a 7/10 well worth the price with lots of potential!. Honestly one of the best games of all time. Dabman for life.

I really liked the 4k graphics and the gameplay, absolutely loved it 10/10. \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665
