..!No!You have no right to do it..!Â !Then talk to a monk for money to give to the families.. Jordan_U: It's mounted. But, I can't access it. I'm running from the LiveUSB. _Tristan: Is this a new bug, or an old one that you think has been fixed? I think there's a bug in fstab When I used the LiveUSB, I could access the fstab file on my drive. _Tristan: I'm asking you the same thing as Jordan_U: I'm asking if this is a new bug, or if you think this is an old one that is now fixed. The LiveUSB was installed yesterday. _Tristan: OK, then you're not the only one who thinks that's a bug. _Tristan: Please boot from the Ubuntu DVD/USB and pastebin the output of "dmesg". I don't have the LiveUSB in hand. I booted from a USB. _Tristan: That would be an improvement, since you have dmesg output. I can get the dmesg from another USB, but that's not the one I booted from Can I get dmesg from the LiveUSB? _Tristan: Please pastebin the output of "ls /proc/mounts" and "ls /media/" Jordan_U: I got it on another computer. It's downloading. Jordan_U: _Tristan: What is the output of "ls /media/"? Jordan_U: Not much Jordan_U:

Apparently I have a problem mounting the drive. _Tristan 82157476af
